At this time Secretary Hughes announced that the state was going to have to be suspended. The flood waters had inundated the entire East End of the gun club. Banks E, F and G were completely under water and that members of Kingsburg Gun Club, some CGSTA directors and Shooters had been up since 2:00 am removing machines and targets, trying to get ahead of the water. The water was still rising and there was no way to continue. The CGSTA would look at options to finish the Championship events, Singles and Handicap. The CGSTA would inform the membership when and where the continuation would take place.

At this time the meeting was called adjourned.
